

List of services provided by Open Briefing

| Unit | Area | Service |
|--------------|------------------------|--|
| Intelligence | Intelligence briefings | Country risk briefings (political/security) ¹ Travel safety briefings ¹ Project risk assessments ¹ Intelligence requests (IRs) Weekly political and security risk updates |
| | Risk advisory | Threat monitoring and risk alerts ¹ Telephone incident advisory ¹ |
| | Due diligence | OSINT investigations and audits of individuals and organisations ^{1,2} |
| | Think tank | Policy recommendations Research Monthly remote warfare briefings |
| Security | Protection | Close protection officers (CPOs) ¹ Secure transport and chauffeurs ¹ Security consultants ¹ Our training unit also provides conflict management and self-defence training |
| | Emergency response | Covert personal GPS trackers with SOS alert and 24/7/365 monitoring and international response ¹ CPOs (emergency response) ¹ Team medics ^{1,3} Medical and security evacuation ^{1,3} Kidnap, ransom and extortion insurance ¹ |
| | Counter-surveillance | Technical surveillance countermeasures ¹ Counter-surveillance teams ¹ Our training unit also provides anti- and counter-surveillance training |

| Unit | Area | Service |
|-----------|--|--|
| Training | Hostile Environment Awareness Training (HEAT) / Survival, Evasion, Resistance, Extraction (SERE) | First aid (including First Person On Scene – Intermediate, FPOS-I)^{1,3} Wilderness survival skills³ Navigation (map, compass, GPS, emergency)³ Kidnap avoidance and hostage survival³ Conflict management and self-defence (including HABC Level 2 Award in Conflict Management)³ Anti- and counter-surveillance¹ Understanding the jihadist threat⁴ |
| | Open source intelligence (OSINT) | Using the internet as an investigative tool (1- and 3-day courses)² Cyber security and anonymous communications¹ |
| Equipment | Outdoor clothing and equipment | Up to 30% off clothing, tents, rucksacks, boots, climbing equipment, etc. from the best European and US outdoor brands (includes some products usually only available to the military and emergency services) ^{5,6,7} |
| | Food and water | Field rations (Meals Ready to Eat – MREs, freeze-dried meals, 12/24-hr military ration packs and team ration packs)⁸ Food aid packs⁸ Bespoke solutions and bulk ambient food supplies⁸ Water filters⁵ |
| | First aid kits and medical supplies | Personal first aid kits/trauma pouches^{5,7,9} Group/vehicle/basecamp first aid kits^{5,7,9} First aid supplies⁹ Our security unit can also provide team medics |

| Unit | Area | Service |
|------|--|--|
| | Ballistic protection | Soft armour, plate carriers and helmets ^{5,7} Our security unit can also provide close protection officers |
| | GPS and satellite navigation, tracking and communication systems | GPS navigation systems ⁵ Our training unit also provides GPS/navigation training Rental or purchase of overt or covert GPS personnel/asset tracking devices or apps plus access to online tracking platform (3-month minimum contract) ¹⁰ Also available with SOS alert and 24/7/365 monitoring and response from our security unit Sat phones plus airtime (rental or purchase) ¹⁰ Satellite broadband terminals plus airtime (purchase only) ¹⁰ |

Services delivered in partnership with: 1. Bradburys Global Risk, 2. K&T Research Services, 3. Survival Wisdom, 4. Quilliam Foundation, 5. Brigantes Consulting, 6. The Outdoor Company, 7. Police Response International, 8. Beyond The Beaten Track/Vestey Foods Group, 9. Fenton Pharmaceuticals, and 10. Go Yonder.

Services are subsidised or provided pro bono to charities and other non-profit organisations as well as independent journalists and human rights defenders and other activists facing state repression. There is a special beneficiary fund available to subsidise contracts for grantees of the Oak Foundation.